

लॉस एंजेलिस में आग के बाद का मंज़रः पिघले एटीएम, जले घर और गाड़ियाँ; मानो बम गिरा हो

अमेरिका के लॉस एंजेलिस के एक बड़े कहां-कहां लगी आग

इलाके में आग लगने से अब तक 11 कैलिफोर्निया अग्निशमन विभाग के लोगों की मौत हो चुकी है. जो तस्वीरें अधिकारियों के अनुसार लॉस एंजेलिस सामने आ रही हैं उससे पता चलता है कि में लगभग छह जगहों पर आग लगी और यह तबाही कितनी बड़ी है. सैकड़ों घर ये तेज़ी से फैली. पैलिसेड्स यहां आग ज़र्मांदोज़ हो चुके हैं, जलने के कारण मंगलवार को लगी थी और ये सबसे कारों का सिर्फ़ ढांचा बचा हुआ है, एटीएम बड़ा इलाका था जिसे आग ने तबाह किया. पिघल गए हैं और तेज़ हवाओं से पेड़ माना जा रहा है कि ये यहां के इतिहास गिर गए हैं. लॉस एंजेलिस के अधिकारियों की सबसे भयंकर आग लगने की घटना ने स्थानीय स्वास्थ्य इमर्जेंसी की घोषणा हो सकती है. इस आग ने 21 हज़ार एकड़ कर दी है और कहा है कि हवा की गुणवत्ता में जो कुछ आया उसे जलाकर राख कर बेहद ख़राब है. यहां का आसमान राख के दिया. इसमें पॉश माना जाने वाला बारीक कणों और धुएं की चादर से ढंक पैसिफ़िक पैलिसेड्स का इलाका भी गया है. यहां आग के कारण अब तक 11 शामिल था. शनिवार सवेरे तक यहां लगी लोगों की मौत की ख़बर है. हालांकि आग पर केवल 8 फ़ीसदी ही क़ाबू पाया प्रशासन का कहना है कि मौतों की संख्या जा सका था.

में बढ़ोत्तरी की आशंका है. लॉस एंजेलिस के उत्तरी इलाके में में सैकड़ों इमारतें तबाह हो चुकी हैं और बसे इटन में लगी आग ने तेज़ी से दसियों हज़ार लोगों को इलाके से निकाला आल्टाडेना शहर को अपनी ज़द में ले जा चुका है. अभी भी आग बुझाने के काम लिया. इलाके के हिसाब से देखा जाए तो में हज़ारों दमकलकर्मी लगे हैं. लेकिन कई ये दूसरी बड़ी आग थी, जो 14 हज़ार जगहों पर आग पर अभी तक काबू नहीं एकड़ में फैली थी. ये अब तक बेकाबू हैं और इस पर 3 फ़ीसदी ही क़ाबू पाया जा सका है.

यहां दो लाख घरों में बिजली नहीं है

लॉस एंजेलिस काउंटी के शेरिफ रॉबर्ट हस्ट्स सेन फर्नांडो से उत्तर की तरफ के लूना ने कहा, ऐसा लगता है कि किसी ने इस इलाके में मंगलवार रात को आग इस इलाके में बम गिरा दिया हो. पैसिफ़िक लगी थी. ये आग तेज़ी से 771 एकड़ में पैलिसेड में अपने जल चुके घर के सामने फैल गई. अब तक यहां 70 फ़ीसदी आग खड़े ग्रेग चैंपियन ने भी कुछ ऐसा ही पर क़ाबू पा लिया गया है. लिडिया-बुधवार कहा. उन्होंने कहा यहां की स्थिति ऐसी है सवेरे यहां के पहाड़ी एक्टन के इलाके में मानो यहां बम गिरा हो. जानकार ऐसी सबसे पहले आग लगी देखी गई. ये लॉस आशंका जता रहे हैं कि मौसम और एंजेलिस के उत्तर की तरफ का इलाका जलवायु परिवर्तन के अंतर्निहित असर, है और 100 एकड़ में फैला है. आने वाले दिनों में भी आग भड़कने का अधिकारियों का कहना है कि यहां लगी आग पर 98 फ़ीसदी तक काबू पा लिया गया है. कैनेथ लॉस एंजेलिस और वेर्चूरा काउंटी की सीमा के पास बसे इस इलाके में आग लगने की शुरूआती घटना गुरुवार को हुई थी. ये क़रीब एक हज़ार एकड़ में कैफ़ा इलाका है. अधिकारियों का कहना है कि आग को आगे बढ़ने से रोक दिया है कि आग को आगे बढ़ने से रोक दिया

गया है और इस पर लगभग 50 फ़ीसदी हालांकि वह विमान सही सलामत लैंड भारी तबाही होती है. हालांकि अधिकारियों का बूपा लिया गया है. यहां आग के कारण करने में कामयाब रहा. अमेरिकी सरकार का कहना है कि इंसानों द्वारा आग लगाए इमारतों को अधिक नुक़सान नहीं पहुंचा के रिसर्च में स्पष्ट रूप से कहा गया है कि जाने को ही एक कारण नहीं माना जाना है.

पश्चिमी अमेरिका में बड़े पैमाने पर जंगलों चाहिए. बिजली के तारों और अन्य आर्चर यहां पर आग शुक्रवार को लगी में लगी भीषण आग का संबंध जलवायु इलेक्ट्रॉनिक उपकरणों में स्पार्किंग भी और ये तेज़ी से सेसन बुलेवार्ड से होते परिवर्तन से है. अमेरिका में महासागर और आग लगने का कारण हो सकते हैं. साल हुए उत्तर में मीडोलार्क और ग्रानाडा हिल्स वायुमंडल की निगरानी करने वाली एजेंसी 2018 में कथित कैप प्लायर ने पैराडाइज़ इलाके की तरफ बढ़ी. ये क़रीब 19 एकड़ के अनुसार, बढ़ती गर्मी, लंबे समय तक कस्बे को पूरी तरह तबाह कर दिया जिसमें की जगह है जहां अब तक आग पर क़ाबू सूखा और शुष्क वायुमंडल सहित 85 लोग मारे गए थे. इनमें से कई तो नहीं पाया जा सका है.

जलवायु परिवर्तन पश्चिमी अमेरिका के आग से बचने के लिए कार से जा रहे इससे पहले सनसेट, वूडली और जंगलों में आग के ख़तरे की प्रमुख वजह लोगों ने जान गंवाई. बीबीसी वेदर ओलिवाज़ में लगी आग पर क़ाबू पा लिया रहे हैं.

फोरकास्टर सारा कीथ-लुकास का कहना है कि अगले सप्ताह भी बारिश की कोई संभावना नहीं है, इसलिए आग के बढ़ने स्थानीय अधिकारियों ने लॉस एंजेलिस से अक्टूबर के बीच आग लगने की का ख़तरा बना रहेगा. हालांकि हवाओं में आग लगने के पीछे तेज़ हवाओं और घटनाएं होती हैं लेकिन राज्य के गवर्नर की रफ़तार शुक्रवार और शनिवार को कम सूखे मौसम की तरफ इशारा किया है. गैविन न्यूसम का कहना है कि अब आग हुई है, लेकिन मौसम वैज्ञानिकों का कहना जिसकी वजह से पेड़-पौधे सूखे गए और लगने का कोई ख़ास मौसम नहीं है. आग है कि रविवार और सोमवार को फिर से उनमें आग फैलना आसान हो गया. लेकिन भड़कने की एक बड़ी वजह %सेंटा एना%

अधिकारियों ने कहा है कि आग लगने हवाएँ हैं, जो ज़मीन से समुद्र तट की ओर बहती हैं. आम तौर पर इनकी रफ़तार आग लगने और इससे निपटने की

आग से निपटने की कितनी थी तैयारी? का कारण अभी पूरा तरह स्पष्ट नहीं है और बहती हैं. आम तौर पर इनकी रफ़तार आग लगने और इसकी जांच जारी है. अधिकारियों 95-135 किलोमीटर प्रति घंटा होती है कोशिशों की ख़बरों के बीच ख़बरों आई का कहना है कि किसी ने अगर आग लेकिन कभी कभी यह रफ़तार 165 कि फ़ायर फ़ाइटर्स के पास पानी की लगाई है तो उसे गिरफ़तार किया जाएगा. किलोमीटर प्रति घंटे से भी अधिक हो कमी हो गई है. इसके बाद, इसे लेकर प्रशासन ने इलाके में ड्रोन उड़ाने से भी जाती है. इसकी वजह से इन हवाओं ने राजनीतिक बयानबाज़ी शुरू हो गई कि प्रतिबंध लगा दिया है. ऐसा ही एक ड्रोन आग को अधिक भड़काया. जब ये हवाएँ आग से निपटने के लिए लॉस एंजेलिस आग बुझाने वाले विमान से टकरा गया, जंगल की आग के साथ मिलती हैं, तो कितना तैयार था.

Indian Railways wins the race of women's empowerment.

(Need to recognize the "First Ladies" who broke the male bastion.)

Women are in the driver's seat in the Railway Board for the first time with the latest round of appointments approved by the Cabinet. Breaking the glass ceiling, the Railway Board, already headed by a woman, now has a woman member in charge of operations and business development and another woman member of the same rank who looks after finance as Finance Member. In another way to inspire women's empowerment, Indian Railways started dedicating an entire train and railway station to women. Maninagar Railway Station (Gujarat) and Matunga Road Station (Mumbai, Maharashtra) are managed by women staff. Ajni Railway Station, located in Nagpur, Maharashtra, has women track maintainers working to clean, detect track faults, and repair them.

But as the railroads expanded, the demand for workers grew. The first women employed by rail companies were destitute widows of railway employees. Managers offered them salaried employment though not entirely out of pity, as they earned significantly less than their male counterparts. Jaya Chauhan was the first woman officer in the Railway Protection Force as part of the 1984 batch. Initially working as an administrative officer, her passion to serve the motherland and explore unreached bastions compelled her to quit that comfortable job and jump into railway policing. Jaya not only did well in the railways but also became the first woman inspector general in the paramilitary forces in the country. Among the 1981 batch of railway candidates, M. Kalavathi was inducted as the first woman member of the Indian Railway Service of Signal Engineers. She currently works as the chief signal engineer in the Southern Railway zone. Before joining the railway services, in 1988, Kalyani Chadha spent four years at the Indian Railways Institute of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering in Jamalpur as a 1983 batch special category apprentice.

Upon for women: male employees feared competition, while middle-class women wanted to be recognized as homemakers and teachers. Nor was it considered appropriate for men and women to mix on the same premises. Social customs were strict, and gender segregation was the norm.

Manju Gupta, who is currently working as the Divisional Railway Manager of the Bikaner Division Mona Shrivastava of the 1998 batch was the first woman member to join the Indian Railway Engineers Service, which was till then only for men. sioner of the Indian Railway Board. Vijayalakshmi was also the first woman Divisional Railway Manager in Indian Railways in the late 1990s. Almost two decades later, women had a hand in breaking the next bastion of men when Padmakshi Raheja was selected as a member of the 1974 batch of the Indian Railway Traffic Service. For the next five years Padmakshi was the only woman in IRTS. Celebrating the unbreakable and undying spirit of India and its 75 years of independence. Manju Gupta, who is currently working as Divisional Railway Manager of Bikaner Division, was the first woman member of Indian Railway Electrical Engineers. After her induction, 14 more women followed Manju's example and entered the Indian Railway Electrical Engineers.

Mona Shrivastava of the 1998 batch was the first woman member to join the Indian Railway Engineers Service, which was all-male until then. It was only at the beginning of this century, i.e., in 2002, that Vijayalakshmi Vishwanathan, a member of the 1967 batch, made it to the post of Finance Commissioner of the Indian Railway Board. Vijayalakshmi was also the first woman Divisional Railway Manager in the Indian Railways in the late 1990s. It took almost two decades for Padmakshi Raheja to break the next male bastion when she was selected as a member of the 1974 batch of the Indian Railway Traffic Service. For the next five years, Padmakshi was the only woman in the IRTS. Also, to increase the number of women leaders in the Indian Railways, the government has appointed all women TTEs for the Mumbai-Ahmedabad Shatabdi Express. The Deccan Queen Express is another train that is manned by an all-women crew. Being the largest employer in the country, the Indian Railways has been making efforts to promote women employees and leadership in the sector, but still, statistics show that the numbers are not significant as per their proportion in the population.

A record for the Indian Railways is that women are now in the majority on the Railway Board, the top decision-making body of the national transporter. For the first time, women are in the driver's seat in the Railway Board with the latest round of appointments approved by the Cabinet. Breaking the glass ceiling, the Railway Board, already headed by a woman, now has a woman

Rutgers University in New Jersey has decided not to create a separate category prohibiting caste-based discrimination, stating that "caste is already covered by the Policy Prohibiting Discrimination and Harassment". The decision was made after a thorough review by the American university, which concluded that caste discrimination was already protected under existing categories such as religion, ancestry, national origin, and race. "Rutgers has taken the position that caste can and does fall within some, or all, of those classes, depending on the factual circumstances," the university said in a statement. This decision comes in response to recommendations made by the Task Force on Caste Discrimination, which was formed as part of an agreement between the university and the American Association of University Professors-American Federation of Teachers (AAUP-AFT). In August 2024, the task force, co-chaired by Professor Audrey Truschke, issued a report suggesting that "caste" should be added as a protected category under the university's discrimination policy. The university's decision has been welcomed by Hindu grassroots advocacy and civil rights groups, who said that adding a separate category would unfairly target American Hindus and faculty. "Rutgers University has announced it will NOT be adding 'caste' as a protected category to its policy preventing harassment and discrimination. As the leading American Hindu grassroots advocacy and civil rights organisation with a student team in Rutgers, CoHNA welcomes this decision," the Coalition of Hindus of North America (CoHNA) said in a statement. CoHNA is an advocacy group representing the Hindu community in North America, including many Indian-American students. The Hindu

American Foundations executive director, Suhag Shukla, also lauded the decision. "We applaud

In 2023, a lawsuit against two Indian-American engineers at Cisco for alleged caste discrimination was dismissed with prejudice, citing a lack of evidence. CoHNA pointed out that despite nearly a decade of investigation, no proof of systemic caste discrimination in the US has emerged. "Yet, elite academics and privileged activists continue to use taxpayer funds to push their personal opinions and causes," CoHNA said, adding that unverified surveys like those from Equality Labs had been rejected by courts for lacking scientific rigour.

Los Angeles wildfire toll rises to 25, hurricane-force winds may intensify blaze

At least 25 people have been killed, and some 30 others remain unaccounted for as massive wildfires have ravaged parts of Los Angeles in the past one week. In its latest update, the US National Weather Service warned that hurricane-force winds had the potential of fuelling the wildfires that have destroyed more than 12,000 structures and forced nearly 100,000 people to evacuate from their homes. Addressing a press conference on Tuesday, Los Angeles County Sheriff Robert Luna said the death toll was likely to increase and

Iranian President rubbishes Trump's claims, says never plotted to kill him

Iran never plotted to kill Republican US President-elect Donald Trump, Iranian President Masoud Pezeshkian said in an NBC News interview on Tuesday, denying past claims from Trump and the US government. In November, the US Justice Department charged an Iranian man in connection with an alleged plot ordered by Iran's elite Revolutionary Guard Corps to assassinate the US president-elect. Law enforcement thwarted the alleged plan before any attack was carried out. Trump also said last year during the US election campaign that Iran may have been behind attempts to kill him. "None whatsoever," Pezeshkian said on NBC News, when asked if there was an Iranian plan to kill Trump. "We have never attempted this to begin with and we never will." Trump, who won last year's US election and will take office on Monday, survived two assassination attempts during the campaign - one in September while he was golfing on his course in West Palm Beach, Florida, and another during a July rally in Butler, Pennsylvania. Investigators have found no evidence of Iranian involvement in either. Iran has also previously denied US claims of interfering in American affairs, including through cyber operations. Tehran says Washington has interfered in its affairs for decades, citing events ranging from a 1953 coup against a prime minister to the 2020 killing of its military commander in a US drone strike

US TikTok users flock to Chinese app Xiaohongshu in protest with TikTok ban looming

As the threat of a TikTok ban looms, U.S. TikTok users are flocking to the Chinese social media app Xiaohongshu — making it the top downloaded app in the U.S. Some of the iTikTok refugees, as they call themselves, say the TikTok alternative, a Chinese app, is being chosen in protest of the TikTok ban. The U.S. Supreme Court is due to rule on a law that stipulates TikTok must be divested from its Chinese parent company ByteDance by Jan. 19 or face a ban in the U.S. over national security concerns. After the justices seemed inclined to let the law stand, masses of TikTok users began creating accounts on Xiaohongshu, including hashtags such as #tiktokrefugee or #tiktok to their posts. Since Monday, Xiaohongshu has become the top downloaded free app on Apple's App Store in the U.S. Xiaohongshu, which in English means "Little Red Book" is a Chinese social media app that combines e-commerce, short video and posting functions. The app has gained traction in China and other regions and countries with a Chinese diaspora such as Malaysia and Taiwan in recent years, racking up 300 million monthly active users, a majority of whom are young women who use it as a de-facto search engine for product, travel and restaurant recommendations, as well as makeup and skincare tutorials. The #tiktokrefugee topic has racked up over 160,000 posts on Xiaohongshu, many of which are videos of American users introducing themselves and asking for tips on how to navigate the app, which they are calling "RedNote". Xiaohongshu did not immediately respond to a request for comment from The Associated Press. Alexis Garman is a 21-year-old TikTok user in Oklahoma with nearly 20,000 followers. She joined Xiaohongshu on Tuesday after seeing others do the same. Garman said she is not particularly concerned about data privacy. "What I experienced on (Xiaohongshu) so far has been really great and inviting," said Garman, who has left two posts on the platform. "I like your makeup," a Xiaohongshu user from Beijing comments one of her posts, and Garman thanks them in a reply. A user from the southwestern province of Sichuan commented "I am your Chinese spy ... please surrender your personal information or the photographs of your cat (or dog)." iTikTok possibly getting banned doesn't just take away an app, it takes away jobs, friends and community," Garman said. "Personally, the friends and bond I have with my followers will now be gone." Other American users who have joined Xiaohongshu have been outspoken about joining the app in protest of the possible TikTok ban. An American user with the handle Definitelynotchippy made a video addressed to the Chinese users of Xiaohongshu, explaining why Americans are downloading the app. "The reason that our government is telling us that they are banning TikTok is because they're insisting that it is owned by you guys, the Chinese people, government, whatever," she said. "And they're trying to make us think that you guys are bad." A lot of us are smarter than that though so we decided to piss off our government and download an actual Chinese app," she said. "We call that trolling ... in short we're here to spite our government and to learn about China and hang out with you guys." Chinese users on Xiaohongshu have so far welcomed American users, with some offering to teach them Chinese. Others have offered tips on navigating the Chinese internet, warning the new users not to mention or discuss anything considered politically sensitive as they may get censored. In some cases, Chinese students have asked the Americans for help with their English homework. Like most apps and internet services in China, Xiaohongshu is subject to censorship. Platforms typically enforce censorship by deleting or shadowbanning content that Beijing deems politically sensitive. Large Western platforms, such as Google and Facebook, are blocked in China. Though Xiaohongshu has seen an influx of users, it is not clear if the app could replace TikTok, which has created an ecosystem that allows for e-commerce and advertising. Before TikTok was under threat, the overwhelming majority of Xiaohongshu's users were Chinese, and the app, which lacks translation features, is not optimized for an international user base.

Who is Pam Bondi? Key facts about Donald Trump's attorney general pick

Donald Trump's pick to lead the Justice Department, Pam Bondi, is set to face questions on Capitol Hill on Wednesday over her loyalty to the Republican president-elect, who has vowed to use the agency to pursue revenge on his perceived political enemies. Pam Bondi, the former Florida attorney general and corporate lobbyist will be one of the most closely scrutinized members of Donald Trump's Cabinet if she's confirmed to lead the Justice department that prosecuted the once and future president in two separate criminal cases that never went to trial. Here's what to know about Bondi ahead of her confirmation hearing: Bondi has been a fixture in Trump's orbit for years, and a regular defender of Donald Trump on news programs amid his legal woes. She's likely to face many questions over her public statements criticizing the criminal cases against Trump, given his threats to seek retribution against those he believes have wronged him. The Department of Justice, the prosecutors will be prosecuted the bad ones, Bondi said in a 2013 Fox News appearance. The investigators will be investigated. Bondi said members of the so-called deep state were hiding in the shadows during Trump's first term, but now they have a spotlight on them, and they can all be investigated. Bondi travelled to New York last May to support Trump in court while he stood trial in his hush money criminal case. Trump was sentenced last week to no punishment in that case after his jury conviction on 34 felony counts. After Trump's guilty verdict in that case, Bondi said during another Fox News appearance alongside Trump's pick for FBI director, Kash Patel that a tremendous amount of trust is lost in the justice system tonight.

She added: The American people see through it. On a radio show last August, she compared special counsel Jack Smith to a rabid dog after he brought a new 2020 election interference indictment against Trump in the wake of the Supreme Court's immunity ruling. Smith abandoned that case and the separate classified documents case after Trump's November victory, citing Justice Department policy not to prosecute sitting presidents. Florida's first female attorney general Bondi was first elected Florida attorney general in 2010, defeating Democratic state Sen. Dan Gelber after earning the endorsement of former Republican Alaska governor and vice presidential candidate Sarah Palin. As Florida attorney general, Bondi led a challenge brought by more than two dozen states to President Barack Obama's health care overhaul.
